

Promotions and special conditions

An overview of our current promotions and special conditions.

The special conditions are subject to change or cancellation without notice. Marking products and/or product providers as PRIME merely highlights their special conditions and expressly does not constitute any form of evaluation, advice or recommendation by Scalable Capital.

ETFs and ETCs

For ETFs and ETCs marked as PRIME (PRIME ETFs) by iShares by BlackRock, Xtrackers and Amundi, the following special conditions apply within the FREE Broker model, in deviation from the respective List of Prices and Services until further notice:

Individual trading orders for purchases on European Investor Exchange (Hanover stock exchange) and gettex (Munich stock exchange) for investment amounts starting at €250: €0 fee for the principal broking business.

Pocket Money for Kids' accounts

Clients who register directly with Scalable Capital starting from 1 October 2025 and have not yet reached the age of 18, will receive the following benefits for opened accounts (Kids' accounts). Scalable Capital may cease the pocket money for Kids' accounts at any time, and will inform clients thereof.

Credit for selected PRIME ETFs by iShares by BlackRock and Xtrackers, in the amount of the respective ongoing product costs (TER). The selected ETFs can be changed at any time.

The Pocket Money is calculated daily based on a market-appropriate stock exchange price and the TER of the respective ETF shares in the Kid's account and is credited to the clearing account of the Kid's account quarterly. The Pocket Money is only granted if the respective ETFs are still held in the Kid's account on the last day of a quarter. The Pocket Money is automatically reinvested into the respective ETF at the earliest possible time. The regulations for the execution of savings plans, as per section 7 of the Special Contract Terms: Broker apply accordingly.
